IN FEBRUARY, 1866, a joint resolution was passed by the Legislature of this Commonwealth, authorizing the procurement of a historical painting, commemorative of the battle of Gettysburg, to be placed in the Capitol at Harrisburg. Messrs. George Connell, of Philadelphia; A. Hiestand Glatz, of York; and David McConaughy, of Adams county, on the part of the Senate; and Messrs. Jas. N. Kerns, A. D. Markley, of Montgomery, Harrison Allen, of Warren county, on the part of the House of Representatives, were the Committee to whom the matter was given in charge. They have selected Mr. Peter F. Rothermel, of Philadelphia, as the artist to execute the work. At a meeting of the Committee, at the rooms of that gentleman, a day or two ago, there were present several specially invited guests, among them being Major Gen. George G. Meade, Gen. Edwin H. Fitler, General Joshua T. Owen, General Charles M. Prevost, General D. W. C. Baxter, Colonel George Meade, Colonel Charles H. Bayne, Colonel Emory, Col. Henry H. Bingham, Postmaster of Philadelphia; Captain Frederick Roland, Henry C. Carey, Esq.; J. R. Lambdin, Esq.; Dr. Lippincott, James H. Martin, Esq., and many others.

It is expected that three years will be required for the completion of the picture, as it will be 36 feet in length by 15 feet in height.

THE Post occasionally discloses a vein of quiet sarcasm which is to be commended. Speaking of the action of the Union (Johnsonian) State Committee, on Tuesday last, it says:

"As there is but one State office to be filled this year, an expression as to which candidate they are for is due to their own rank and file, as well as to the public at large. We hope an announcement on this matter will be made at an early day."

It would surprise both the Committee and the Post to have discovery made of "rank and file" belonging to that organization in Pennsylvania. None are below the grade of captain.

DR. CHARLES R. FOSTER, one of the leading influential citizens of Centre county, died from consumption, in Philadelphia, a few days ago. He represented his county for a number of years in the State Legislature, and was regarded as a gentleman of unusual ability and talent. He was prominently recognized in all the enterprises and movements in his section of the State, and as a public spirited, enterprising citizen was greatly appreciated. His death will cause sorrow among a large number of friends in this neighborhood, to whom he was endeared by his many noble traits of character.

THE Tennessee election will occur on the first Thursday of August next. The following is a list of the candidates for State offices and members of Congress:

Republican.	Democrat.
GOVERNOR.
*Wm. G. Brownlow.	Emerson Etheridge.
SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.
John Eaton, Jr.	Charles S. Cameron.
Dist. CONGRESS.
1. R. R. Butler,	James White,
2. *Horace Maynard,	John Williams,
3. *Wm. B. Stokes,	Eli G. Fleming,
4. James Mullins,	*Edward Cooper,
5. John Trimble,	Bailie Peyton,
6. *Sam'l M. Arnell,	Dorsey B. Thomas,
7. *Isaac R. Hawkins,	Wm. P. Caldwell.
8. David A. Nunn,	*John W. Leftwich.

*For re-election.

MR. PARTON, when he was at Cincinnati, gathering materials for an account of that city which appeared in the Atlantic Monthly, stumbled upon a geographical fact that apparently filled him with amazement, to-wit: "Those great and famous western rivers are ditches dug by Nature as part of the drainage system of the continent—mere means of carrying off the surplus water when it rains." It would be interesting to have Mr. Parton point out wherein the origin and design of western rivers differ from those of the east.

THE West Chester Record urges the election of Mr. John Hickman to the Legislature, as a contribution from that county towards expunging corruption from the State capital. That is the way to do it. When the seats in the two Houses shall be filled by men of the order of Mr. Hickman, venality and corruption will have disappeared. What other counties will follow this example?

THE editor of the New Castle Gazette (democratic) has been to Philadelphia, to see if he could draw any consolation from the political aspect as presented in that section of the Commonwealth. After surveying the field, he exclaimed in agony of spirit, "Oh, Lord! how long?" We suspect he will wait a good while before getting an answer to suit HIM.

A REPORT prevailed at Washington on Wednesday that Mr. Thaddeus Stevens had died on that day at Lancaster. So far from it, the venerable statesman, in company with Mr. James Buchanan, was attending the marriage of Dr. Carpenter with Mrs. Miller, at Mountville, in Lancaster county.

IT NOW turns out that the Washington telegrams relating to the Louisiana levee bonds, are false, in common with two-thirds of the dispatches forwarded from Washington. The bonds were put on the market last winter, when Mr. Wells was Governor, and were a failure.

IF THE managers of the Associated Press would employ as their agent at Washington a man having at least half common sense, they would earn the thanks of all publishers, and cease to annoy the whole public.

SOME feeling is growing up between the Republicans of Chester county and those of Montgomery as to which shall furnish the candidate for the State Senate in place of Mr. Royer, whose term of service is expiring.

THE Gubernatorial canvass in Ohio promises to be animated.

—On Tuesday of last week the citizens of the town of Riley, Michigan, were thrown into a great excitement. An insane woman, the wife of Thomas Jones, murdered her own child, aged two years, by nearly severing its head from the body with an axe. There was no one present when the unnatural mother killed her child, but soon after she called into the house a neighbor who was passing by, and told him what she had done. Instead of manifesting sorrow for what she had accomplished, she immediately took hold of the child and attempted to throw it around the room. Mrs. Jones has at previous times given evidence of insanity. Before she was married she attempted to destroy her life by jumping into a well.

—All the railroad conductors in New York State are to be uniformed after the first of October next. This will be a great convenience to the travelling public, as it will enable them at once to distinguish the conductors, should they have occasion to communicate with the latter at any time during a journey. Some of the conductors may not like the change at first, but they will get accustomed to it like the police, who wear a very becoming uniform.

Preaching and Poverty.

The "confession and plea for mercy" of that weak-minded and morally overwhelmed New England preacher, the Rev. S. M. Merrill, contains a commentary on the situations and trials of country preachers in general, which ought not to be overlooked. The miserable Merrill recounts that during the first year of his ministerial life he "received only four dollars and his board;" that at the end of the second year "he found that his income had been a trifle less than one hundred dollars;" that, two years afterwards, his salary was increased to two hundred dollars; but that, in the meantime, the "expenses of a horse and carriage" on various circuits, and of getting married, had brought him six hundred dollars in debt. This career was continued from bad to worse. The poor preacher was regularly assigned, at the annual church conference, to different and distant posts; and, having no money to pay his own and family expenses, was forced to sell his possessions, accept charitable donations of clothing, borrow means wherewith to travel and subsist, and thus, he declares, "increase his financial embarrassments until it seemed to him that he must sink and go distracted." Finally, being tormented by his poverty and debts into "indifference of duty," he "sought the more joyous and worldly persons for company to drown his trouble of mind;" and became guilty of the "careless and imprudent step" which lost him his reputation and drove him from his home.

It is not at all wonderful that a man of Merrill's evident calibre should have gone distracted and committed an "imprudence" under such circumstances. The wonder is that more preachers in Massachusetts, Vermont, and elsewhere in the Northeast, are not unfrequently driven to do likewise. The treatment of the provincial clergy in that region is generally scandalous. A village minister without a good deal of the executive ability and the persuasive power of a Spurgeon, can hardly exist without getting into debt. If his conscience or desires impel him to fulfill what he deems to be the law of God, by taking to himself a wife and begetting children, it is so much the worse for him in a worldly sense that even the affection of his suffering household cannot always preserve him from self-reproach. His "pay," such as it is, is as accidental and spasmodic as the revenue of a peddler of a worn out patent. The conferences rarely provide him with anything; and the village church has no fund. He applies to the trustees. Those impassive deacons refer him to insolvent debtors for pew rent. From the latter, perhaps, he manages to obtain wherewith to temporarily stay the impetus of grocers' and butchers' duns. But sometimes sickness prostrates him. Then a conclave of stingy deacons "resolves" that from one half to one-third of his meagre stipend shall be "deducted" while he is lying helpless, with a half-starved family about him, in his bed. As that proportion of his wages has virtually been deducted already, his debts are merely increased by the sum of a doctor's bill.

At the end of the year, regard for custom and a fondness for amusement inspire the congregation to "do something" for the Rev. Mr. So-and-so and his "sweet family" in the way of a donation party. The evening is appointed, and during the previous afternoon donations are sent in. Farmer Doogood contributes a barrel of flour, minus a considerable number of baking batches that farmer Doogood's helpmate has previously moulded into goodly loaves, for Farmer Doogood's frugal dinner table. Deacon Manyacres authorizes his hired man to deposit a cord of water logged fuel on the scrupulously kept grass plot before the minister's front gate. Lamb, the butcher, sends a leg of mutton and a ten pound roast. Fatprofit, the village store keeper, forwards a hideously old-fashioned piece of calico, "to make the little ones a set of nice new dresses." The tinsmith, Clatterware, who has just made a vain attempt to solder up the dozen or more rust holes in the preacher's ancient coffee pot, conceives the bright idea of dispatching him a new one. The wives and gossips of the place have in the meanwhile provided enough provender of various kinds to satiate a very large picnic party, and as night comes on, there is a general rush of donors and self invited guests to the preacher's dwelling. The faded figures of the tidy parlor carpet are trampled into indistinguishable hieroglyphs by filthy soles; and as for the dining room, that is the scene of an onslaught upon "donated" victuals, which might reasonably inspire the minister's pining consort to arouse her offspring from their trundle beds and set them on to glut themselves with supper pending the famine of to-morrow. There is a box in which, as in the chapel box of a convent, the people, who have turned the preacher's house into a hotel, may drop a douceur unseen. Such retiring charity is not apt to be the virtue of New England villagers, and the bits of ragged currency which are subsequently gleaned by the poor minister from the bottom of this receptacle can be summed up into nothing more than a mockery of his indigence. The one grateful and affecting relic of the evening's visitation lies upon the centre table, moistened by a woman's tears. It is a receipt in full for the cost of a year's medical attendance, and bears the signature of Frank Hearty, Jr., M. D. It exorcises one haunting arithmetical calculation from the preacher's brain. If, haply, the winter's stock of flour in the Doogood household does not fall so low as to impel that estimable tiller of the soil to return and levy a half bushel tax upon his gift, another calculation, based on bread, will also have been erased for a little time. But debt, a very sword of Damocles, still hangs above the preacher's head. Want grins at him from the future. Comfort and contentment—these he is called upon to preach to others, even though, like the exiled singer of the Song of Home, he has never known whereof he tells.—N. Y. World.

—The Honolulu Commercial Advertiser of June 1st, says: "A comet has been visible, though very faint, for some weeks in the northeast. It was seen by several persons about ten P. M., one evening lately, just over the Koolau mountains, during the late cessation of the trade winds, when the sky was cloudless. As its apparent course is downward towards the sun, it rises early each evening. It probably cannot be seen in Honolulu now except after midnight. It has a nebular head (no star discernable in it) with a spreading tail eight or ten degrees in length. When last seen the comet's head and tail were so faint as to be scarcely discernable."

—Paris consumes, as butchers' meat, an average of two hundred horses per month. This meat is sold only for what it is, viz., horseflesh. It is eaten consciously, and because it is palatable and nutritious. It takes all the forms of other meats, such as steak, chops, sirloins, cutlets, rumps, ribs, and so forth, and is subjected to a similar variety of culinary treatment. The Parisians, by the way, have lately tried to introduce the flesh of mules, also, to the tables; but this has proved too much even for the enlightened digestion of the French people. In May the number of mules slaughtered for the markets there had fallen from sixty to nineteen per month.

—Bavaria was called upon recently to make up her mind, in a puzzling situation. She was asked to enter the reconstructed Zollverein. If she accepted she took the first step, with her eyes open, on the road to political annihilation. If she refused she crippled her commerce. Prince Hohenlohe, who is more than suspected of Prussian proclivities, urged the financial view of the case. Old ex-king Ludwig and the Austrian party denounced his policy as unpatriotic. Thereupon he threatened to resign. The King at once ordered Baron Tauffkirchen to sign the treaty, and the Bavarian aristocracy now hate Prince Hohenlohe more than ever.

—The immigration to Minnesota this year is immense. Three hundred and fifty wagons have passed over the bridge at St. Paul since April, with 2,000 persons. Thousands have come by rail and steamer. It is estimated that, in the Sauk valley above, one hundred miles northwest of St. Paul, 10,000 persons have settled this spring; and still they come. The average at Winona, of immigrants passing to the back country, at one time was 700 per day. Other points have received their share also.

—General Sylvanus Thayer, of Braintree, Mass., who graduated at Dartmouth College, in 1807, has given the college $40,000 to found a department of architecture and civil engineering.

THE SURRATT TRIAL.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 26, 1867.

Judge Fisher decided not to strike out the evidence as to the running of the trains between Washington and New York, delivered yesterday, unless the prosecution shall have failed to connect the prisoner with one of those trains.

The testimony as to the telegraphic communication between Elmira and Washington, whereby it was possible for the conspirators to communicate with the prisoner, stands upon the same footing, and will be stricken out if the prosecution shall fail to connect the prisoner with the conspiracy by that instrumentality.

Mr. Bradley noted an exception.

Considerable additional evidence on both sides, as to the character of Dr. Bissell, was submitted.

A discussion subsequently occurred on a motion to strike out certain testimony, by the defense. First, that in relation to the attack upon Secretary Seward; second, that relating to Jacob Thompson; third, that relating to the shooting of Union soldiers and the gunboat fight, as testified to by Dr. McMillan; fourth, evidence given yesterday in relation to telegraphing; fifth, evidence in relation to the running of trains on April 15th, 1865; sixth, letter known as the "Duell letter," picked up in the waters of North Carolina; and seventh, all evidence relating to Atzerott, at the Kirkwood House.

The defense claimed this was a trial for murder, not conspiracy, and this evidence had no relation to the case of the prisoner.

The prosecution contended that all this evidence was legitimate, except the "Duell letter," which they had not properly connected with the case, and had no doubt it should be stricken out.

Adjourned till to-morrow.

The source of the Ottowa is said to be within fifty miles of the head waters of the Dognay. The explorers encountered large quantities of ice on Lake Gros on the 24th of May. RICHMOND, July 26.—The District Court commenced its session to-day. Judge Underwood, in his charge, said the Grand Jury would have a new class of cases before them, in which illegal registration would be charged. He urged moderation, as many had registered upon the strength of the Attorney General's opinion, and that of the District Commander, and had not intended to commit perjury. If any were presented, it should not be ignorant, but prominent men, who knew better.

BALTIMORE, July 26.—The steamer Liberty, from Havana on the 23d, has arrived.

About one hundred and fifty sergeants leave Havana for Spain about the 30th. According to the new army regulation their pay cannot be promoted further, and they are, therefore, cashiered against their will. This will doubtless be the source of mischief, because these men will resent and join the revolutionary band in Spain.

THE SILVER PALACE EXCURSION.

The Press—The Cars—Chicago—A Banquet—Return.

In our last we bade adieu to our readers at Alliance, Ohio, where the large party of excursionists had partaken of a hearty breakfast at Sourbeck's famous dining rooms.

THE PRESS.

We now had an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the members of the press represented in the party, all of whom we had found on our embarkation fast asleep in their cozy berths in the luxurious palace sleeping cars. The press of the East and West was liberally represented, and many of the well known female letter writers and journalists were in attendance. Among the latter were "Jennie June," Olive Logan, the intrepid defender of the Black Crook; Madame Demorest, known as the publisher of an excellent mirror of fashions; Ellen O'Mahoney, of the News, and Miss Lusille, of the New York Mercury. The most cordial feelings of friendship soon united the excursionists into one pleasing family circle, and nothing prevented the enjoyment of all. Occasionally some little incident worthy of note would happen, and then an hundred note books jumped from the pockets of the fraternity and an hundred pencils jotted down unintelligible sentences and words, after which, with a smile of satisfaction with the work performed, the books were returned to their places and the news-gathering gentry resumed their conversation. The reading world will certainly know every incident worthy of note pertaining to the excursion.

THE CARS.

Between Alliance and Crestline we made close examination into the beauties and excellencies of the Silver Palace cars. We cannot venture upon a description, as the workmanship is of the most exquisite character. The entire inside woodwork is of rich black walnut wood beautifully trimmed, tipped and ornamented with silver. The burnished metal is profusely used throughout the car, and forms a very pleasing contrast with the dark walnut wood. The furniture and upholstery is of a quality in keeping with the magnificence of the car. Indeed, we cannot imagine how these palaces could well be improved, as they have been constructed regardless of cost, with a view only to please and satisfy travelers. The cars we believe will at once be placed on the route, leaving New York each morning at nine o'clock, and Chicago each evening at seven. The entire stretch between these two cities will be made without changing cars.

AT CHICAGO.

The train reached Fort Wayne about noon, where the guests partook of a hearty dinner, and losing little time, were soon again rolling over the smooth road at a wonderful rate of speed. At half past ten o'clock the excursionists reached the great city of Chicago, where a large number of carriages and cabs were in attendance to convey all to the Sherman House.

The reception met at the hands of the Chicagoans was most cordial. These good people know full well how to give eclat to their city; are enterprising, liberal and eminently hospitable. Any individual of celebrity or note, or any delegation of citizens from other cities in Chicago, be they there for public or private purposes, are sure to be sought out, welcomed and honored with all needful attention. In manufacturing, Chicago is far behind our own city, but is equally as far in advance of us in traffic and commerce.

The city has about eighteen hotels from about the same grade as our Scott House upward. Several of them are fully equal to our Monongahela House, which is saying much in their praise. To give an idea of the vast trade transacted in Chicago, it may be said that during the past year more than fifty wholesale houses each transacted business of more than a million dollars. The operations in grain, packing, and shipment of provisions in extent surpass those of any other city in the world. Some twenty-eight railway lines are directly or indirectly connected with the city. Chicago is not satisfied with her present importance, but looks forward to a still higher destiny, expecting when the Atlantic and Pacific shall be connected with railways that she will become a vast intermediate metropolis. We welcome the city to the brilliant prospects, and hope her high hopes may be realized, stipulating, however, that Pittsburgh shall supply all with iron and steel, with glass and glassware, with wagons and plows, and with oil to light up and lubricate.

BREAKFAST AND BANQUET.

But we have forgot the excursionists. After a hearty supper they were assigned rooms and the majority were not long in retiring. Next morning all partook of a splendid breakfast which was tendered ostensibly by the Chicago press to their brethren, but which in reality was a compliment from the proprietor of that excellent first class hotel. During the day the guests visited prominent places in the city, and at four o'clock in the afternoon were united at a banquet held at the Sherman House. This was gotten up in the very best style of that ever popular hotel and equaled any affair of the character which we have ever attended. Hon. J. B. Rice, Mayor of Chicago, presided with much grace and dignity. Of the banquet we let a Chicago journal speak in place of ourself, as we were too much occupied to take notes on the all important occasion. The dishes being removed the wine cup began to circulate and the toasts of the day were in order.

"The Mayor opened the proceeding by offering a welcome to the guests of the Central Transportation Company, which he did in substance as follows:

"The first words from myself that come uppermost to my lips are words of welcome. [Applause.] And in obedience to the duty of the office which I have the honor to hold in this city, giving me the right to speak in behalf of the citizens, I desire to offer you a cordial and hearty welcome to the West, and to congratulate you all on the splendid and convenient conveyances which have been provided for your comfort on the journey. [Applause.] And when you have remained in Chicago as long as your convenience will permit, I trust you will extend your journey through our State also, that you may experience the conveniences on every road that goes out of this city of railroads, and see the broad and fertile fields of Illinois, now in their brightest dress, and behold the source of so large a portion of the staple of our success, which is daily sent to the East. You shall see a great and prosperous people, who own and cultivate the fields through which you are to pass, and when you have returned to your homes in the East, and tell the story of your Western journey, it may be that many of your men and women shall resolve to seek their fortunes in the West, to rear homes and live a life of usefulness, ease and independence. [Applause.] His Honor then gave the first regular toast of the day—'Our Guests, The Press.'

"The toast was responded to by Hon. Thos. Dunn English, of New Jersey. He regretted that the choice had not fallen upon one who was more competent to do justice to the subject. According to his idea of oratory the two grand qualifications of a post-prandial orator were a profound ignorance of the subject, and an awful admiration and regard which will not allow him to approach to within speaking distance of it. The first requisite he claimed not to have, being a newspaper man of many year standing, but with regard to the second, he would stand second to no man in the country. He felt that he was peculiarly qualified to respond to the toast, inasmuch as he was a citizen of a great city, although the name of it was perhaps unknown to the citizens of Chicago. Nevertheless it was a great city, full of revolutionary reminiscences, standing four hundred feet above the Hudson, and having New York, Williamsburg and New Jersey for its suburbs. He alluded to Hoboken. [Laughter.] They thought there that New York was a great and respectable city, the Rome and Venice of the Western Hemisphere, and they also rejoiced sincerely at the great and growing prosperity of Chicago of which they had no jealousy. In the same connection he would also say that the other great cities now represented entertained similar sentiments regarding the Garden City of the West. On behalf of those he responded to the welcome which had been accorded to them and would remark that they all hailed with pride the evidences of the wealth and greatness of Chicago, the daughter which was rivalling in beauty and wealth its august mother. He went on to speak of the enterprise which had been shown by the citizens, especially in their railroads, and said that the present greatness of the city was due, not so much to the people or the fertility of the soil, as to the railroads. He referred, in highly complimentary terms, to the Silver Palace Cars of the Central Transportation Company, and to the hospitable manner in which they had all been entertained, culminating as it did in the splendid banquet of which they had just partaken.

"The second regular toast was 'Our Hosts, the Central Transportation Company,' which was ably responded to by S. A. Goodwin, Esq., of Chicago.

"The third regular toast, 'The Chicago and New York through route,' was responded to by Dr. R. H. Gilbert, of the Allentown line. He said that brevity was the soul of wit, and it was also a characteristic of the life of railroad business, and in responding to the great railroad interests of the country he would act on that principle and be as brief as possible. What the excursionists had witnessed with their own eyes during their recent ride on the Allentown and Pennsylvania route, spoke better of itself than all the eloquence he could command. He was proud to be connected with that town, because it was the shortest and the best between this city and the East, being 890 miles from Chicago to New York. Seventy-five of these embraced the New Jersey Central, 21 miles the Lehigh Valley road, 36 miles the Eastern Pennsylvania, 247 the Pennsylvania Central, and the remaining 468 the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne leading to the gateway of the Great West. He referred in flattering terms to the Central Transportation Company, remarking that the enterprise displayed by them was but an exemplification of the great influence of railroad interests, not only in the arts and manufactures, but in every part of industrial and intellectual progress. Wherever the railroad extended manufactures sprung up and agriculture poured out its horns of plenty. The speaker proceeded to speak of the new line of cars now inaugurated by the Central Transportation Company as another evidence of the progressive spirit of the times, and as destined to work a vast improvement on the present system of traveling, still carrying westward the star of empire. They had shown this in their disposition to adopt every improvement which was presented, as witnessed during the trip which had so far been such a brilliant success.

"The next regular toast, 'The Pacific Coast and its Institutions,' was responded to by Major M. M. Noah, of the Alta California, who said that coming from San Francisco to Chicago, he felt that he was at home. Chicago was a leader and San Francisco had followed it in everything. It was now doing its share of the work on the Great Pacific Railroad, having built mile for mile, and imported 14,000 Chinamen. California was a prolific State, and did not object to be taxed to aid in that great undertaking. He said Chicago was always in the mouths of the Californians, and he closed his remarks by expressing the hope that San Francisco would in a few years, present the same evidences of prosperity as Chicago.

"The last regular toast, 'Woman, the best gift to man, and always the dearest,' was responded to in a very felicitous and humorous speech by Mr. R. D. Holmes, of the New York Dispatch.

"At the close of the banquet, which passed off happily, the guests were escorted in carriages along Wabash avenue and other pleasant paths, for an hour or two, and, on returning in the evening, a ball was given in the Sherman House, which brought the proceedings to a close. The party was a brilliant and successful one, and the festivities were kept up until nearly midnight."

HOME AGAIN.

Early next morning the excursionists took their departure for their homes. At Fort Wayne the party took dinner at Col. McKinney's new hotel. Here an impromptu meeting was held, at which the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That on the part of themselves and the ladies under their charge, for the courtesy, attention and elegant hospitality extended to them during their excursion from the seaboard and intermediate points to Chicago, embracing days of continued enjoyment, the thanks of the gentlemen of this party present on the trip are due and are hereby tendered to the following gentlemen: J. O. Stearns, of the Central Railroad, New York; E. H. Williams, of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad; J. N. McClintock, of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad; George R. Dykeman, Superintendent of the Eastern Division, and Jesse H. Pool, Superintendent of the Western Division of the Central Transportation Company, and to Jonah Woodruff, the General Superintendent, for the general arrangement of the affair, the skill shown in conducting the trip thus far toward a successful termination, uninterrupted by a single unpleasant circumstance, and for the satisfaction which it has afforded them, in giving a personal experience of a mode of transit unrivalled in comfort, elegance and luxury, in the annals of Railway travel.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary of this meeting, on the part of the ladies and gentlemen present, be requested to sign these resolutions and transmit them to the parties mentioned, with our best wishes for the success of the enterprise which has filled a void long felt by the traveling public.

And thus ends the pleasant excursion trip of the magnificent Silver Palace Cars.

How the Musical Artists Talk About the Decker Bros. Pianos.

It is now an established fact that the Decker Brothers Patent Piano Forte is one of the best instruments in the market. It is purely an American piano and its sale in the United States is very rapidly increasing. Its peculiar qualities are: First, extraordinary volume of tone; second, evenness throughout the scale; third, excellent singing quality; fourth, richness and brilliancy; fifth, superb action, and sixth the power of standing in tune longer than any other piano ever before made. Every instrument made by the Decker Brothers possesses every one of the foregoing truly desirable features. As a proof of the estimation in which the Decker Brothers Pianos are held we quote the following endorsements: The New York Musical Review says: "The instrument gives evidence of superior workmanship, and power, and brilliant tone." Prof Rohbock, of Pittsburgh, says: "I am greatly pleased to find that you have obtained a powerful body of tone, utterly free from anything like harshness—a disagreeable quality, that seldom fails to accompany a large volume of sound. Your improvements are of a positive character and tend materially to prolong the period in which the instrument will stand in perfect tune." Robert Heller, the eminent pianist, says: "The Decker piano is a master piece of mechanical art, and fully equal to the best I have found in this country. The amount of tone produced is really wonderful." S. B. Mills, of New York, says: "I have rarely seen a square piano forte with the same finish and purity of tone that the Decker Brothers' piano fortes have." Carl Wolfsohn, of Philadelphia, says: "In purity of tone, in musical character, in touch and finish, in every way, I have never came across a square piano superior to the Decker Brothers' piano forte." Hon. Samuel P. Bates, Department Superintendent of Schools in Pennsylvania, writes from Harrisburg: "For strength, volume and purity of tone, I have found none equal to the Decker piano forte. Its merits need only be known to secure recognition as the foremost American piano." Theodore Thomas, William Mason, Carl Anschutz, John Zundel, and a host besides of musical celebrities, are equally emphatic in praising the merits of this instrument. Mr. Charles C. Mellor, No. 81 Wood street, is the sole agent in this part of the country for the sale of their piano fortes.

The Genius of Medicine

Seems to have achieved one of its most wonderful triumphs in the conception of that most superlative of all remedies ever invented, known as "DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER." You will search in vain through the vast storehouse of nature for plants and herbs, which in their combination will present to the world a remedy of equal power in the cure of diseases. Not only in the cure of ordinary diseases induced by malarial influences, but those which have become almost "second nature" are thoroughly and completely put to flight by the searching and anti-septic powers of "DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER." It is a specific for all diseases of the blood, and possesses a charm not only in eradicating them from the system when once located, but even in hindering their inception, by rendering the animal powers competent to their resistance. At this season of the year any person will receive benefit by fortifying the constitution with a bottle or two of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. Fevers cannot take hold of the system when under the restorative and bracing influence of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. It has cured the most malignant diseases that have ever been known to afflict mankind.

The long suffering invalid from Rheumatism by its use has been enabled to throw away his crutch. The pale and debilitated female has been enabled by its use to exult in the joyful return of good health and a rosy complexion.

The palsied limbs are once more animated with life and motion, and it is all done by a restoration of the blood to a healthy and natural condition.

All impurities are carried out of the system through the channels and outlets which nature has established for that purpose. The stomach, that grand receptacle for food, by its use, has imparted vigor and power to concoct and prepare the food, out of which healthy blood is made and distributed to the various organs which have parts to perform in a healthy organism. There is no disease of weakness or debility that Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher will not cure, and there is no disease of an infectious character that it will not hinder, if taken in time. Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, at 140 Wood street, and take no other.

Dr. Keyser's Consultation Rooms are No. 120 Penn street, from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

A Rich One.

The Clearfield Banner tells the following joke: A friend informed us that, several days ago, a neighboring gardener discovered that some "privateer" was regaling upon his vegetables. He accordingly set a trap and caught the depradator, which had "four legs, fine fur or hare, on its back, webbed feet, and smooth tail." Being ignorant of the name and character of his prize, and thinking it a "pet" belonging to some neighbor, the kind hearted gardener, instead of taking summary justice, administered a "severe switching," and then released it in anticipation of its running home. The "nondescript," however, hurriedly ran to the river, and to the utter astonishment and great dismay of the gardener, "plunged in and drowned itself out of pure mortification." Poor fellow; he then regretted his severity; and lamented the unexpected drowning of—a muskrat.

Pump Making.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Perry Bonham, Pump Maker, No. 33 Third street, Allegheny. Mr. Bonham is a careful and experienced mechanic and attends to his business in a manner which commends him to the patronage of the community at large. The wooden pumps manufactured by him are of a superior character and are everywhere regarded as superior. Mr. Bonham likewise attends to all orders for wooden tubing, of which he makes a specialty. The manufacture of log pumps is another item in his trade, and persons desiring such articles can be accommodated no better anywhere else. We take pleasure in commending this establishment to the patronage of our readers, knowing the proprietor to be a fair dealing, honorable business gentleman, and a skillful mechanic.

Clothing and Where to Purchase.

Yesterday, while in Allegheny, we had the pleasure of looking through an immense stock of men and boys' clothing at the popular merchant tailoring establishment of E. J. McGratty, southwest corner of Ohio street and the Diamond. This stock embraces all the latest and most fashionable styles in the very best quality of goods and workmanship, and will be sold at prices extraordinarily cheap. Mr. McGratty is determined to sell out his stock of ready-made goods at a great sacrifice, and bargains of an unusual character may safely be anticipated. The purchasing community will do well to make a note of this fact and favor the store with a call. Custom work will also be attended to at the most reasonable prices.

Fainted on the Street.—Last night about nine o'clock, a woman, twenty-five years of age, was passing up Fourth street, and when in front of Dr. Le Moin's office, fell on the sidewalk. She was picked up and carried into the Doctor's office and the proper remedies applied, when she recovered. The woman is a stranger in the city, her residence being in Butler county, from whence she came recently. We were unable to learn her name, but were informed that she was in indigent circumstances, and that Mr. George Fortune took charge of her and had her conveyed to Passavant's Infirmary. Dr. Le Moin says there is nothing serious the matter with her, and that she will soon recover.

To Shippers of Petroleum.—The efficient Superintendent of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company gives notice that that Company will, until further notice, transport promptly from the present terminus of the road, at Brady's Bend, to the city of Pittsburgh, any quantity of Petroleum that may be offered, at twenty-five cents per barrel, and return empty barrels from Pittsburgh to Brady's Bend at ten cents each. The track of the road is extended down to, and along the water's edge, at Brady's Bend, so as to afford all necessary facilities for the convenient and speedy transfer of oil from boats to cars.

Attempted Penitentiary Escape.

An attempt was made about three o'clock yesterday by a white man and a negro to escape from the Western Penitentiary, which came near being successful. A load of flour was being taken in at the large gate, and, so far as we could learn, the persons who attempted to escape were assisting in taking it in, and while the attention of the others were attracted to something, they cut and run. The white man was recaptured in the cellar of a house on Monterey street, in the "Mexican" portion of the city, and the negro at some point on the Commons. We endeavored to learn the particulars of the affair, and called on the Warden for that purpose, but he was too busy to give us the required information, we suppose, as he did not allow us time to make our business known, but left as soon as we entered. We then attempted to ascertain some of the facts connected with the escape from the clerk or other attache of the establishment, but with no better success. The only fact we could learn was that one was a white man who was in the carpenter shop, and that the other was a negro. He did not know the name of either, nor did he know their number. If we have mis-stated any of the facts connected with the escape and recapture, it is not done intentionally, but from want of the proper information, which was refused us.

We understand that an attempt was made by four prisoners, about two weeks ago, to work their way out by the use of iron bars, which had been carelessly left where they could get hold of them. We would not be surprised to hear of a "general delivery" of all the prisoners confined there, unless there is some improvement in the management of affairs.

Our Home Progress.

That there is no high achievement but through unremitting industry is demonstrated again in the progress of our neighboring carpet dealers, McFarland and Collins, at Nos. 71 and 73 Fifth street, next door to the Post-office and over Mr. Miner's Book store. Perhaps, however, there is not one within the range of our circulation but knows their location, though there may be a number who have not looked in upon them as we have done, and are consequently not aware of their almost perfect means of supplying the wants of their trade. They have recently had their commodious and well appointed rooms cleansed and improved in appearance, and we can, without hesitation, pronounce that they occupy as attractive rooms—as to elegance of finish, comfort, and tasteful arrangement of their goods—as any to be found within, or probably without the State. Their stock of goods, we must acknowledge, is a rare feast to examine—so well is it adapted to the greatest number of tastes, and we would esteem it an ungenerous tribute to merit if we passed them by without an especial invitation to our friends to walk into their Rooms, if merely to derive the pleasure of an examination of their varieties of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Lace and Damask Curtains, &c.

Owing to their readiness to serve their patrons, and their ample means of doing it, they have established a trade both in the city and throughout the country such as to entitle them to a place equal in rank with the largest Carpet Dealers in the West.

Larceny by Bailee.

The Act of Assembly making larceny by bailee a criminal offence, was a most judicious one, as it provides for the punishment of a very common offence for which the common law made no provision, except that of breach of trust. It is, however, frequently misconstrued by magistrates and others, notwithstanding its simplicity, and prosecutions are brought for this offence without any foundation whatever, but we presume they never reach the court, or if they do, go no further than the Grand Jury. The following case appears to come within the meaning of the act: Jacob Fry was entrusted with a dozen table knives and a pair of scissors by W. T. Goss, of Allegheny city, with instructions to take them to an establishment on Wood street, this city, to have them ground, but instead of leaving the articles as directed, he disposed of them, and appropriated the money to his own use. An information was made against him before Alderman Mullen, charging him with larceny by bailee, and a warrant issued for his arrest.

The Monongahela Valley Route.

Yesterday the Committee having in trust the business of the friends to the project of constructing the proposed Monongahela Valley Railroad via Saw Mill Run, making a direct diagonal cut to Monongahela city, held a meeting in this city. The attendance was large. Previous to the transaction of business, Messrs. McClelland and Handman, of Washington county, were, by motion, added to the committee. The question of survey was taken up and an experienced civil engineer was engaged for the service. The funds necessary for the survey were subscribed and paid up at the meeting, and a large quantity of the stock reported as taken. After appointing the time for a general meeting, to be held at Library Hall, on August 10th, and the election of J. Reamer, Esq., as Secretary and Treasurer, the meeting adjourned.

Terrible Death.

The Meadville Republican says: On Tuesday morning, Mr. Carlton E. Dowd, aged 21 years, unmarried, employed in Parker & Myers Mill, near Hydetown, was accidentally killed under very shocking circumstances. He undertook to adjust the band to the shaft for the purpose of turning a grindstone, and in the act his hand was caught in the band which whirled him over several times mangling his body in a horrible manner. He died before surgical aid could be obtained. He was formerly of Danville, Livingston county, New York, and has been employed in the mill about two years, where he has won the confidence of his employers and the respect of all who knew him. His remains were sent to Danville for interment.

Lawrenceville Public Schools.

The following teachers have been elected by the Board of Directors of the Lawrenceville schools, to serve for the ensuing term: Principal, S. F. Patterson. First Ward School—Assistant Principal, Miss Louisa Ahlborne; Grammer Department, Miss Anna McLaughlin; Intermediate Department, Misses Mould and David; Primary Department, Misses Ewing and Garrott. Second Ward (Hatfield) School—Assistant Principal, Miss McCandless; Grammar Department, Miss Nixon; Intermediate Department, Miss Annie De Knight; Primary Department, Room No. 3, Miss Ella Hanna; No. 4, Miss Ida Haller; No. 5, Miss Annie Freshy; No. 6, Miss Nannie Black.

Illegal Liquor Selling.

A number of informations were made before Alderman Strain, yesterday, by James Regan, against various parties, for a violation of the liquor law. Joseph Hufragh was charged with selling liquor without license, and with selling to minors, and the same charges were preferred against Adam Hufragh. The prosecutor alleges that the defendants attended a pic nic in Chartiers township, on the Fourth of July, and that they sold liquor there indiscriminately. It appears that there was a general fight at the pic nic, and it is altogether probable that these prosecutions are the consequences of it, if it was not the result of the liquor selling.

Base Ball.

The match game of base ball between the Allegheny and Enterprise Clubs, announced for yesterday, was postponed until three and a half o'clock, this afternoon. A large number of spectators had assembled yesterday to witness the game, and both clubs were prompt in putting in an appearance, but the ground was so wet from the recent rain that it was deemed impracticable to play the game. The distinguished Umpire, Mr. Lee, of Kittanning, is in the city, and has, at the earnest request of both clubs, agreed to remain until after the match, and officiate as Umpire. Tickets purchased yesterday will be good for to-day.

Hearing Restored in Five Minutes.

When I applied to Dr. Aborn, 134 Smithfield street, this morning, (Saturday, July 13th,) I was so deaf in my right ear that I could not hear my watch tick when pressed against it, and had been so for years. In five minutes time he restored my hearing. Now I can hear my watch tick at a distance of eight inches. This I consider a remarkable cure.

T. L. ARMSTRONG,
Railroad Contractor,
Residence, Red Bank, Clarion Co., Pa.

William Moore, Esq., corner of Duncan and Davis streets, can testify to the above statement.

GARDNER & STEWART.

Opening of the New Organ.—The new and magnificent organ just furnished by Stuart & Co., of New York, for the First Methodist Church, of this city, will be opened to-morrow. An eminent organist of the city will preside at the instrument morning and evening. The morning sermon will be preached by Rev George Brown, D D., the first pastor of the Church in 1829. In the evening the pastor, Rev Alexander Clarke, will preach. The public will appreciate the privilege of hearing the new organ for the first time, and sermons appropriate to the interesting occasion.

Surety of the Peace.—Henry Molman and John Rattigan, residents of the Fifth ward, are at the "outs" and like many others, learn wisdom only by experience, and are just now attempting to gain a little knowledge at that "dear school," by going to law. Rattigan threatened to give Molman a thrashing, which in all probability he had no intention to do, but for which Mr. Molman made information before Alderman Taylor against Rattigan, for surety of the peace, on which a warrant was issued for the arrest of Rattigan.

Wonders Never Cease.—We have chronicled from time to time the strikes of oil made on the Triumph Company's territory until more than thirty wells have been announced, all producing from 30 to 200 barrels when pumping. Now we are advised of a strike on No. 174, with a production in six days of 1800 bbls.—or 300 bbls. per day. No oil territory now known on the globe equals that of this remarkable tract of only 200 acres.

Improvements.—Grant street to Sixth, is being repaved with cobble stones. A flag stone crossing has been laid on Penn street at St. Clair, an improvement much needed at that point and equally so at many other. A fire plug has been placed on Fifth street between Wood and Market.

New Book Store.

A new Sabbath School book store has been opened since the first of April at 113 Third street, this city, by F. G. Reineman. We bespeak for him a good trade. His large acquaintance through the western part of this State, his obliging turn, with his push and ability to speak the German language, will no doubt win him a good patronage. He has constantly a good supply of the choicest and latest Sabbath school publications for libraries and requisites, from the various publishing houses east and west, and furnishes the Sabbath Schools with libraries at as large a discount as any house in the two cities. He also keeps school books, blank books and stationary, ink, &c., &c., which he sells at the lowest figure, to those who wish to sell again. Call and see for yourself, or if you cannot call personally, send your order. His advertisement will be found in another column.

Change of Agency.

NEW YORK, July 6, 1867.—We hereby notify the public of Pittsburgh and vicinity, that we have transferred the agency for the sale of our Pianos from Messrs. Hoffman, Hoene & Co., to Mr. C. C. Mellor, No. 81 Wood street. Mr. Mellor will furnish our pianos at the same price they are sold at our warehouse.
DECKER & BROS.

From the above the public will know that hereafter the Decker & Bro's., pianos are only to be found at C. C. Mellor's warerooms. Persons desiring to purchase a first class Piano should not fail to examine the Deckers.

Pic-nic of Division No. 42, Sons of Temperance.—We are gratified to announce that the pic-nic under the auspices of Division No. 42, the funds of which are to be applied to the purpose of liquidating the debt incurred in furnishing the new hall, is likely to prove a success, if the number of tickets sold is an indication. We were informed yesterday of a liberal christian gentleman who took fifty tickets, and for which he gave his check for $100 toward this object. This is highly commendable, and it is hoped that others will respond in a similar manner, as the object commends itself to every lover of his race. There is no institution in our city that is exerting such a marked influence towards the reformation of a large portion of our young men who have been addicted to habits of intemperance. Therefore, it is hoped, that all will lend a helping hand towards promoting and developing so good and worthy a cause.

The Best Known Tonic—Caswell, Mack & Co.'s Combination of Iron Phosphorus and Calisaya, known as Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya. The iron restores color to the blood; the Phosphorus renews waste of the nerve tissue, and the Calisaya gives a natural, healthful tone to the digestive organs.

One pint contains the virtue of one ounce of Calisaya and one teaspoonful a grain of iron and Phosphorus. Manufactured by
CASWELL, MACK & CO., New York.
For sale by all druggists.

Assault and Battery.—Auther Anderson is charged with aggravated assault and battery, before Alderman Mullin, on oath of Mary Harris. The parties are of the "contraband" persuasion, and reside in the Fourth ward, Allegheny. The prosecutrix alleges that the defendant attacked her and struck her in the mouth with his fist, knocked her down, and kicked her in the side, and then attempted to strike her on the head with a base ball bat. A warrant was issued, and Anderson arrested and committed for Court.

Important Notice.—Dr. Spencer, Dentist, No. 254 Penn street, requests us to state to his many friends and patrons that, having removed his family to the country for the summer months, it will be necessary for those desiring to see him to call at his office between the hours of seven o'clock A. M. and six o'clock P. M. These will be his office hours until about the 15th of September, when he will move back to the city, and can then be found at all hours.

Fatal Accident.—A man whose name we were unable to learn, fell from a building on Ridge street, Allegheny, on Tuesday last, receiving injuries which resulted fatally yesterday. The man was employed as a laborer on the building which is being erected on the street named, and fell from the second story to the side walk. Our informant was unable to give either the name or residence of the unfortunate man.

Trinity Episcopal Church.—The vestry of this ancient parish a short time ago elected Rev. John Scarborough, of Poughkeepsie, New York, to the rectorship, made vacant by the transfer of Rev. Dr. Swope to Trinity Chapel, New York. Mr. Scarborough has not yet signified his acceptance, but is on a visit to the parish and will preach in Trinity Church to-morrow at the usual hours.

Malicious Mischief.—Joseph Youghain made information before Alderman Mullin against J. Ketterly, charging him with malicious mischief. The prosecutor is a resident of Ohio street, Allegheny, where he keeps a grocery store, and he alleges that the defendant maliciously threw a lump of coal through his window. A warrant was issued for Ketterly.

Disturbing the Peace.—James Johnson made information before Alderman Mullen, against P. Suitor and wife, charging them with committing a breach of the peace by coming to his house yesterday during his absence and assailing his wife with violent and abusive language. A band of desperadoes in the vicinity of Newbern, North Carolina, murdered Reuben Bratcher a few days ago. Several Sheriff's deputies arrested two suspicious negroes, who were left in charge of one of their number, named Williams, while the others proceeded with other prisoners, but they had not gone far when they heard a pistol shot, and returning found Williams on the ground covered with his own blood. The jail was subsequently guarded by a squad of soldiers for fear of an attempted rescue.

Norman refused to retract, and Banford fired, the ball passing through his enemy's left breast, inflicting a wound that will probably prove fatal before morning. Banford was arrested.

THE FRENCH LEGISLATURE.

The sentiments of the more liberal sections of the population of France find expression in the Corps Legislatif, and with increased boldness. Some of the declarations clearly indicate one of two things—either that the ardor of renowned members have over-mastered their discretion, or that the people are rapidly ripening for a revolt against the imperial government. Looking on from this distance it seems most improbable that gentlemen of the large experience of THIERS, FAVRE, PAGES and their associates should be swept headlong by a gust of passion beyond the limits where they could safely rely on popular support.

In the discussion on the Mexican question M. THIERS used language that quite recently would have been regarded by the occupant of the throne, and by many of his own colleagues as decidedly treasonable. In his peroration he said:

"Dare I speak of the Chamber? If it did not resist, that was from a sentiment I respect—the consideration due to the government—to the chief of the state. [Hear.] And I draw this lesson from it, that no greater service can be rendered to the chief of state than to resist him on certain occasions. [Cheers on some benches.] I have always been among those who in France have sought liberty under a monarch, but there are two species. The first, where a prince governs through ministers, but without consulting them—in fact, absolutely. The other, a chief of the state, having respectful and devoted ministers, but concerting and arranging with them, they deferring to him with respect, and in case of difference, supporting themselves on public opinion. This latter is the one to which I have devoted myself for more than forty years, and the one I wish for my country; and I am sure that the true friends of the government will desire that it pass as soon as possible from the first form to the second."

An interruption by the President gave him the chance to reiterate this sentiment with added force.

M. FAVRE surpassed M. THIERS in directness and audacity. A recent hemorrhage made it highly imprudent for him to speak at all; but a sense of public duty silenced all considerations of the state of his health. He was able to speak no more than a few minutes, but the sentences that fell from his lips were charged with electricity. He boldly accused the government of lying to the Legislature as to the object of the Mexican expedition, and, at various stages, as to the progress made in it; of having held confident language when it knew that success was impossible; of cowardly treachery to MAXIMILIAN; and of having been the cause of his death, as well as that of many Frenchmen.

At this point occurred one of the most remarkable passages of the discussion. M. FAVRE was speaking of an article in an official journal:

"And when it appeals to the Divine right I reply that the fate of the humblest child of France who dies obscurely on a foreign soil in the performance of his duty is more worthy of sympathy than that of a prince who perishes in defence of his throne." (Cries of "order, order.")

The President intimated that persistence in such language would compel him to call the orator to order. M. EUGENE PELLETAN cried out: "We esteem a Frenchman more than we do an Austrian archduke." The DUKE DE MARMIER answered: "Make no distinction between victims." M. FAVRE continued:

"It is because I repel all distinction that I pronounced the words which have excited the Chamber. No reasons of political necessity can justify the conduct of the government during the latter period of the expedition. Maximilian went on the faith of our promises with our army, and he ought to have been supported by it. Yes, I have experienced a feeling of profound affliction that this unhappy prince was not brought back to Europe with our troops, so that France might have been sheltered from the blood that has been spilt, and which will fall upon her head. In a free country ministers would be impeached; it is only in France (interruption) that they are not responsible, and therefore it is another who should be placed at the bar."

The President here so far forgot himself as to say that these words would fall upon the head of their author in the eyes of the entire country. M. FAVRE's reply to this censure was characteristic:

"No person in this chamber, not even our honorable President, whom I respect, is entitled to hold such language to me—to me, who am one of that minority which, when it was in power, overthrew the scaffold for political crimes, which you have again set up. [Loud expressions of dissent.] I have always protested from this place in favor of the inviolability of human life, and if you had taken these protestations into consideration, perhaps we should not be now deploring the calamity that has occurred." [Great agitation.]

Almost fainting, the orator took the arm of Mr. BETHMONT, and walked out of the chamber.

On the 12th instant, M. GLAIS BIZION said that every liberty was wanting in France, and added that the country would not remain much longer in its present condition. France was doing penance with a fool's cap on her head.

The opposition journals of Paris, inspired by the boldness of speeches in the Legislative body, keep up vigorous and vivacious assaults upon the government. M. DERVERNOIS in L' Epoque, and M. GIRARDIN in the La Liberte, are the most foremost.

Nor do the people keep altogether in the background. The La Liberte reports a dinner at the Grand Hotel—"a real festival, an ovation given by four hundred free men to two men, one of whom, BERRYER, represents genius and eloquence, and the other, JULES FAVRE, represents democratic liberty. The bar, the political world, the press, and literature were there." After the dinner, BERRYER spoke, then FAVRE; and then "BERRYER, with tears in his eyes, threw himself into the arms of FAVRE, and they embraced each other closely."

THE SECRETARY of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue hesitate as to the adoption of measures for the effectual collection of the tax on distilled spirits. The pressure on them from the illicit distillers, is said to be immense. The Treasury Department, however, may as well understand that the tax must either be enforced or Congress will be required to repeal it. This nominally maintaining a tax, the primary advantage of which is to benefit those who systematically violate the law imposing it, has been endured till the patience of the public is exhausted.

What the whisky tax ought to yield, but which the Treasury fails to get, has to be made up by additional burdens on other departments of productions.

Two-thirds of the Revenue officials in the country are concerned with the illicit distillers in defrauding the Treasury. The Secretary ought to have little difficulty, where offenders are so many, in finding out some of them; and quite as little in putting honest men in their places. If the Secretary and Commissioner do not soon manage to do better with this business than they are doing, the impeachment engineers in Congress may find profitable and interesting employment in taking them in hand.

THE Gettysburg Star, after carefully and ably reviewing the nature and tendency of Mr. Sharswood's decision as to the constitutionality of legal tender notes, concludes:

"He is not only not deserving of the office he seeks, but he is among the least deserving and most dangerous of our public men. He has given fair notice of his views of public policy, and his election as Supreme Judge will be an invitation to him to apply them, and uproot the whole financial fabric of the country."

IN the democratic party of Cumberland county there is an active mutiny against the clique that has controlled matters for some years past.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Churches are going up in the two cities and immediate neighborhood, notwithstanding the high price of materials and labor, many of them being noted for their splendor, elegance and architectural beauty, and built, too, without regard to cost. Congregations act quite differently now from what they did in former years. Instead of locating their church structures on inelegible unsightly sites, without regard to style, comfort in light, ventilation, or heat, and at the least cost possible, they now select the most commanding, convenient, and desirable locations that can be obtained, and erect buildings combining beauty of form, and all the modern improvements of the day, without any stint of money. Church building has become more modernized within a few years than any other class of structures. It is right and proper it should be so, as they are expected to be adapted to the purpose for which they were built, for a longer period than ordinary buildings.

Within a year or two several very handsome edifices have been commenced. First and foremost is the new Third Presbyterian Church on Sixth street, which is progressing towards completion, with all possible haste. It will be the most elegant structure of cut stone in the city. Already the outline indicates this fact. The congregation are providing money lavishly in order to carry out their grand purpose. The neat and roomy chapel building at the rear end of the main structure is a gem, and serves admirably for the various congregational services. The Presbyterians in Allegheny are erecting a nice cozy building just below the West Common and quite near the new and commodious Orphan Asylum. It is well located, and in a very respectable neighborhood. The workmen are pushing forward as rapidly as possible.

The dedication of the new chapel of the First Baptist Church on Fourth street, near Grant, is remembered by many of our readers, as we gave at the time a lengthy description of this elegant structure. It is an ornament to the town, and when the main building is erected, it will go far towards beautifying that part of the city.

Several months ago the First Christian Church (Campbellite Baptist,) located on North Common and Beaver street, Allegheny, was formally opened. It is a beautiful, steepled structure, located on a commanding site, and marks an era in that body never before attained in this community.

Within a brief period several church edifices have been erected by the Episcopalians, most of them not large, but of much architectural beauty. The most important church improvement is the remodeling of Christ Church, on East Common, Allegheny. The changes will be of such a character, that the whole will be completely metamorphosed throughout, inside and outside. This improvement will give the Episcopal Church a position it has never attained before in our sister city. The progressive steps of other bodies has given them important advantages, which, however, may be hereafter secured by this body too. Whenever old Trinity, on Sixth street, occupying like the First Presbyterian Church, an enviable location, is rebuilt in superb style, as that wealthy congregation are able and intend to do, and the congregation of St. Andrew build the new structure in contemplation, then the Episcopal Church will be what she might have been years ago, had the same exertions been used then that are now being put forth.

The opening of the Fifth United Presbyterian Church, on Webster street, under circumstances of the heroic cast, is well known. The First United Presbyterian Church congregation in Allegheny, under the pastorate of the oldest minister of that body hereabouts, have built the foundations of a new edifice on East Common. It will doubtless be a grand affair, and will occupy one of the best sites in the city. We do not know when the main building will be erected, but presume at an early day.

The Methodist Episcopals have entered into a new era in church building within a few years, partly discarding the plain, old-fashioned style of the fathers, as we apprehend they are doing practically some of the peculiar usages that marked by-gone years. It is well that the spirit of modern improvement should be encouraged by them, and indeed, by every denomination. In the spring Ames Church was opened and dedicated to divine service. This is a plain but neat building, occupying the site of the old Third Presbyterian Church. Nearly two weeks ago the Centenary Church, on the corner of Duncan and Kirkpatrick streets, near Centre Avenue, was formally dedicated. The first story only is completed and temporarily roofed. The congregation intend, as soon as they are able, to erect an elegant steepled building, to cost between thirty and forty thousand dollars. One of the finest and most imposing buildings, for the use of the Manchester congregation, is nearly completed and will be dedicated shortly, and it will surprise many of the denizens of our city to see what an elegant building has been erected in this rapidly growing community on Western Avenue. At another time we may give a fuller description of it. The East Liberty Church is being completely remodeled, at an expense of about twenty thousand dollars, and it is thought will be one of the handsomest churches, of that denomination, in the two cities. Perhaps the most beautiful and costly structure, towering above all those named of this body of Christians, is the new North Avenue Church in Allegheny. The brick work is rapidly tending toward completion, and it is expected the building will be ready for occupancy ere long. Those in charge of the project will not spare means to make it a model church. The Lawrenceville congregation has commenced a new building of fine proportions.

The rebuilding of St. Patrick's Church, a few doors above their former location on Liberty street, is known. The grand Cathedral on Fifth and Grant streets is still slowly attaining its beautiful proportions by degrees. A vast sum has already been expended, and yet more will likely be spent to finish it as originally projected. The German Church on Liberty has from time to time been receiving new features, so that it is now quite an ornament in the upper part of the city. Several new buildings are in course of erection, or projected, at points contigious to the city, so that the Catholics are keeping pace with their Protestant neighbors in the work of Church extension.

The congregation of the German Church, injured by the construction of the tunnel passing under Wylie street, have commenced a new building within about one square of the old one, and on a far better location, quite near Pennsylvania Avenue. The remoddeling of the old First Baptist Church by the Universalists, and erection of the Congregational Church on Hand street, are of recent date, and have been noticed before. The erection of the second edifice in Allegheny by the Methodist (Protestant) Church is also a matter of late occurrence. There may be other projects in view, or commenced, unknown to us at this time, which we will be glad to notice as they transpire.

That very religious paper, the Independent, has found a text, or rather a pretext, for saying some unwise things about our Baptist friends. It seems the teachings of Henry Ward Beecher, published in the sermons of that divine in the Examiner and Chronicle, have called out a protest from the New York Baptist Pastors' Conference, in which said teachings are declared to be "unsound and dangerous," and their publication meets their strongest disapprobation. Mr. Tilton, the editor of the Independent, holds a pew in Plymouth Church, and thinks that Beecher is the leading evangelical clergyman of the United States, and that he is doing more to keep the evangelical churches of this country true to their evangelical principles than any three ministers of the Baptist, or any five of the Congregational denomination. Some persons rather doubt the truth of this broad assertion. Read the following comment upon this remonstrance, in the editor's well known flippant style when he is dealing with religious questions. He says the beginning of controversy "is like letting out of water." "Why, then," he asks, "has the Baptist tank been tapped, and this fountain of criticism unsealed against so good a Baptist as the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher? Was it not fair to presume that, since the construction of a baptistry under Plymouth pulpit, flowing with a mimic Jordon of pure Ridgewood water; and since the introduction of the Plymouth Collection (slightly sprinkled with immersion hymns,) into the Baptist denomination; and since the publication of Mr. Beecher's sermons in the Baptist newspapers; was it not fair, he says, to presume that Mr. Beecher was in loving unison with the Baptist clergy, at least of his own two cities of New York and Brooklyn." The criticism of nearly a column and a half is in this strain, without hardly touching the point at issue, or answering the objections made by this body of Baptist ministers against Mr. Beecher's teachings.

A VICTIM OF AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE.—The Peru (Ind.) Republican says: On Monday last, a man named Joseph Demphis—a raving maniac—was brought from Butler township and placed in charge of Sheriff Wallick. The facts in the case are related to us as follows: Mr. Demphis resided at Fort Wayne until quite recently, where he left his wife, as he stated, on account of inconstancy. She had two children, one of which he declared to be illegitimate. On leaving his wife, Mr. D. went to Mr. Bradley's, in Butler township, where he has since been at work; and on Saturday last he heard that his wife had murdered his child. On Sunday he went to Wabash to learn if the report was true, and found it confirmed by the Fort Wayne papers. He returned to Mr. Bradley's in the evening, almost frantic with grief, and Monday morning was found some distance from the house in a wild and raving condition, and attempting to commit suicide. With the assistance of a neighbor, Mr. Bradley succeeded in binding him, and brought him to town, when it was found necessary to confine him in a cell.

—The growth of Texas in material prosperity is gratifying. The population has increased at least three hundred thousand since 1860, and is being daily swelled by immigration from Europe and from the Southern States east of the Mississippi. Texas is the land of promise for agriculturists and stock raisers. It affords within its boundaries the products of both the temperate and tropical zones. Not only the farmer, but the mechanic and the schoolmaster are wanted there.

GIVE NATURE A LIFT.

People expect too much of Nature. They trifle with their health and their constitutions, and then are surprised that they feel sick. The pressure of constant mental or bodily labor, upon the animal powers, is tremendous. Very few systems and constitutions can bear up against this pressure unassisted. Add to this the unhealthy influences which lurk unseen in the air we breathe, the water we drink, the lassitude produced at this season by the change from the rigor of winter to the warmth of spring, and it would seem to require almost superhuman vigor to keep in perfect health without reinforcing the physical energies. But how reinforce them? Certainly, not with adulterated stimulants. There is no poison in the outer air, or in the atmosphere of furnace-heated rooms, or work-shops, or factories, so pernicious as those deadly burning fluids. Why use them, when a vegetable tonic without alloy, are everywhere obtainable? Nothing has ever been offered to the feeble and debilitated so harmless in its nature, so powerful in its invigorating effects, as this celebrated STOMACHIC AND ALTERATIVE. In the army and the navy, in new settlements, and in crowded cities, old and young, rich and poor, it is used as a PROTECTIVE and RESTORATIVE MEDICINE, with most gratifying results.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone" on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten on my lungs. I knew that the popular mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to a discharge which I was constrained to believe was a salutary provision of Nature to get rid of some morbid condition in the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying to the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, J—— C——.

Dr. Keyser's consultation rooms are No. 120 Penn street, from 8 A. M. until 4 p. m.

jy27:e77 H. BLACKSTONE, Sup't.

THE MEMBERSHIP AND CONGREGATION OF BROWN'S A. M. E. CHAPEL, through its Trustees and Pastor Rev. J. W. DEVINE, appeal to all classes of Christians, in the name of our sovereign Ruler, the God and Father of all, for help, to enable them to complete their church, now in course of erection, on the corner of Hemlock and Boyle streets, Allegheny. Favored by the kindness of a few white friends, and the untiring efforts of the membership, our little Church has been trying to erect another temple to the honor of the Living God, ever since our building on East Commons was destroyed by the guilty hand of an incendiary.

We wish and pray for the success of all Christians, whether Presbyterians, Baptists, Episcopalians, or others. There are enough colored people in the two cities and its environs to fill churches specially devoted to the evangelical teachings of these denominations. Church Power is not alone our aim. We wish to build a church wherein we can worship God according to our consciences, and the light which He has given us.

Prof. S. A. NEALE, who is not of our faith, but is, nevertheless, an earnest worker in the Spiritual Kingdom of the Master, will act as our Agent for a brief while, and we have invested him with letters which empower him to solicit subscriptions from all well-wishers.

We also respectfully announce that a Grand Celebration of the victories of Freedom in this country, will come off at UNION PARK, in the western part of Allegheny, AUGUST 1st, 1867. All the Colored Military and Civic Societies will participate, and a Grand Tournament will be one of the features of the occasion. All the profits will be devoted to the payment of our church debt.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GROCERY AND PROVISION

JOHN A. McGRAW, President,
J. P. ISRAEL, Secretary.

PRESENT OFFICE:
26 FEDERAL STREET,
ALLEGHENY.

This Company was organized and has for its object the cheapening of everything relating to family use; and, for this purpose, will open a store in a central location, and sell goods at the real cost of the goods, and a slight addition for expenses. The stock is divided into shares of $50 each. Only ONE DOLLAR A WEEK is to be paid until it is all paid up. The shareholders will receive their goods at their own doors from 34 to 60 per cent. less than they can buy at the regular sales of a retail store. Besides this, they will participate in the profits which are to be realized from selling at the regular retail rates to parties who are not holders of the stock. The stock is being rapidly taken up, and it is supposed the store can be opened up in 30 or 60 days. This is the poor man's chance, as he will be able to save twice as much in a year as he pays for his stock. Besides this, it is expected this stock will realize from 10 to 20 per cent. above par. There is only a limited amount now for sale, though many a poor man can yet get a chance to take a share in the profits, as well as get his groceries and produce at cost, even if he has only one dollar. Just think of it! Just think of it! you will go into a grocery store and spend $5, and $4 of it is clear profit to the storekeeper; whereas, by investing one of these dollars in this Company, you can have the other. By purchasing even one share of stock, instead of being a burden it will actually be a saving to you of from $1 to $5 per week, besides paying your weekly installment on your stock.

The stock can be sold at any time for its full value, that you may need the money.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER WEEK

is required on each share. This is a Savings Bank in which your profits are immediate and direct. You get your interest right in your hands, and a share of the profits at the end of the year.

Parties wishing to subscribe can do so at

No. 26 Federal St., Allegheny City.

BELTING AND PACKING OFFICE OF W. & A. J. PACKARD,
Youngstown, Ohio, June 17th, 1867.

Messrs. Burke & Barnes, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN—We ship you, to-day, by railroad, a safe of your make, for a few repairs. The safe went through the disastrous fire that occurred here on the 6th of March last, burning our store and warehouse, and we are glad to inform you that the papers taken out of the safe after the fire were not harmed in the least. We did not suppose any safe, especially so small a size, could possibly stand such a fire, and when we discovered the papers all safe and sound, we were agreeably disappointed. We will give you an order for a large size safe when we get into our new store. Truly yours,

RAIL ROAD CO.

Are now constructing a Railroad from OMAHA, NEBRASKA, westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making, with its connections, an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

Having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
At Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road was completed from Omaha 305 miles west on the 1st of January, 1867, and is fully equipped, and trains are regularly running over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 212 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1,565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year Bonds to the Company as the road is finished at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which BY SPECIAL ACT OF CONGRESS ARE MADE A FIRST MORTGAGE ON THE ENTIRE LINE, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,416,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipment.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished, for the month of May, were $251,782. These sectional earnings, as the road progresses, will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended; on 300 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of

Nine Per Cent.,

And it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

HUGH McKELVY, P. M.

Meeting of Friends of Temperance at Tarentum.

At a meeting of the friends of Temperance, held in the U. P. Church, Tarentum, on Friday, July 19th, J. A. Miller, Esq., was called to the chair, and Mr. James Dickey appointed Secretary. After which the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Our village and vicinity have been about three years without any licensed house to sell intoxicating liquors, as the result has been most beneficial to the morals and good order of the same, and knowing that the curse of God is "pronounced not only against the drunkard, but also against the man that giveth his neighbor drink;" including the vender, the official who authorizes him to sell, and the man who knowingly votes for such an official; and

Whereas, Licenses have been granted to the village and vicinity, contrary to the wishes of a large majority of our citizens; therefore,

Resolved, That we wholly disapprove of the conduct of the official who granted said licenses, and cannot and will not support him at the coming election.

Resolved, That we invite the temperance men of Allegheny county to co-operate with us in doing whatever may be best calculated to suppress intemperance and promote the cause of temperance.

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this meeting, that an independent temperance candidate, for the office of County Commissioner, should be at once selected, and that we invite the friends of temperance throughout the county to co-operate in securing the nomination of a known temperance man for the office of County Commissioner, irrespective of party politics.

Resolved, That W. N. Evans, Esq., James Dickey, Rev John Boyd, J. A. Miller, Rev. Robert Hamilton and S. N. Dunn be appointed a committee to correspond with leading temperance men throughout the county with a view to the carrying out of the above resolutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be published in the secular and religious papers of the county.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

An Anti-Temperance association has been organized in Erie, styled the "Sons of Liberty." They propose to oppose the election of any candidate to the Legislature who is in favor of a license law. The organization is said to number five hundred members.

The Cheese factories of Tioga county turned out about 90,000 pounds of cheese in June. The amount will reach at least 100,000 pounds in July. Next year the quantity must be doubled if possible.

New Castle Items.

The "local" of the New Castle Gazette is not particular in ascertaining the proper names of individuals, as witness the following items clipped from his paper of yesterday:

MAN DROWNED.—On Saturday evening last, a man answering to the name of "Pat," a stranger in this place, and who has been engaged on the streets in paving for a day or two, was drowned while bathing below Pearson's dam on the Neshannock.

FOUND DEAD.—An old man answering to the name of "Honz," was found dead in his room on Monday morning, in Union township, at the residence of John Smith, about two miles west of town.

Clarion County Items.—A young man named Hopkins, living near Tylersburg, was fatally injured on Sunday, by falling off a swing. He died in four or five hours, after much suffering.

Near Redbank, a clover seed produced 35 stalks 4 feet long, which contained 383 full grown heads. Hard to beat, surely.

One day, week before last, two ladies, who had gone to the woods, near Clarion, to gather moss, were chased to within the borough limits by two wild-cats, when the "varmints" gave up the chase. The ladies were much frightened but not hurt.

The Grading on the Clearfield railroad is progressing rapidly towards an early completion. Work is also about to be commenced on the bridge across Clearfield creek. The contractors contemplate putting one hundred men to work on it this week, or next, with a design of finishing the same early in November.

A Dredging machine has been operating in French Creek above the dam at Beemstown during the last few days, for the purpose of deepening the channel from the lock entrance to the main channel of the creek. This will give a greater supply of water to the canal.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 26, 1867. }

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 139¾; Eighty-one bonds, 110¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 111½; Five Twenties, 1864 108¾; Five Twenties, 1865, 109¼; Consols, 108¼; Seven Thirties, 107⅛@107¾; Ten-Forties, 102¼. Stocks—Erie Railroad, 74¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 92¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 103¼; Chicago and Northwestern, 47¼; Chicago and Northwestern preferred 72¾; Fort Wayne Railroad, 106¼; Michigan Southern Railroad, 83; New York Central, 109⅜; Reading, 107¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 48¾. Mining shares—Corydon, 1,70; Quartz Hill, 2,05; Gregory, 6,80; Smith & Parmalee, 5,75; Quicksilver, 34¾.

The gold market has been strong to-day at 139⅝@139¾. The export demand is increasing, and is likely to continue for several weeks. The advance in imported goods, together with the prospect of doing a good fall business, increases the orders for foreign goods, and consequently, the demand for gold. Furthermore, should bonds continue at present prices of currency, we would soon have to look to shipments for bonds from Europe, the price here being higher than in England, exchange considered. Gold bonds are lower with a downward tendency and light investment demand. The high rates on Government securities has induced holders to sell and buy Union Pacific Railroad bonds, interest payable in gold semi-annually, like the Government bonds, but are offered by the road at 90 per cent., thus a thousand dollar bond will cost but nine hundred dollars, and interest, while a 5-20 bond will cost from $1,078 50 to $1,115, according to the issue of the bond. Investors will thus gain 16 per cent., provided the one security is as good as the other. When the Government was in need of money it was well for parties having surplus funds to invest in Government securities, and heavy purchases were made from the interior out of sympathy for the cause of the Union, but now the loans are all placed, and instead of supporting the Government, speculators are paid for keeping up the price of bonds. There is no doubt that the Pacific Railroad bonds will eventually advance to par soon after the road is in operation, but whether there would be a ready sale immediately after a purchase is made without a sacrifice, is more than anybody will be able to say. The road is a great gigantic enterprize, and if properly managed, would be able to pay its interest on the funded debts, but what mischief poor management can do everybody knows from his past experience or that of others.

—Thompson's Bank Note Reporter has the following: "Since the Government has taken the entire control of the currency, it seems to be a necessity that some financial measure be adopted that will give elasticity to it; for during some portions of the year much more currency is wanted than at other seasons.

"It is already predicted that in October and November the money markets will be extremely tight, from the fact that more currency will be wanted to move the produce than can be furnished by the banks. In order to understand the argument and the case that we shall try to bring out, it is necessary to understand the bank machinery of our cities where there are Clearing Houses. The clerk of the Clearing House Bank takes all the claims on other banks to the house, and gets in turn all the claims that the other banks have on his bank. He then readily ascertains for himself, and is also informed by the manager of the house, how the balance stands. In other words, ascertain whether he is debtor and has to pay money, and if so, how much; or whether he is creditor and has to receive money, and if so, how much. The exchanges are made at 10 o'clock, and the balances paid and received at 1 o'clock. Three quarters of the banks sail close to the wind; that is, they manage to have on hand just about money enough to cover the 25 per cent. reserve. Hence, it is evident that the balance at the Clearing House is the key that springs a contraction or permits an expansion. If a bank is debtor to too great an amount, away goes its reserve money, which must must be regained the next day by calling in loans. If a bank is creditor, then its ability to loan money depends upon circumstances. Its credit may have been the result of calling in loans expressly to concentrate currency to send off on orders. It is evident, then, that when the country calls for currency in large amounts, the banks will call in their loans or 'contract.' The logical result is that the banks are forced to a contraction when money is wanted, and they are at times induced, by their easy position to expand when money is not needed. It is our design to work up a financial measure to obviate, if possible—to ameliorate, at least, this bank kink, or bad kink, in our financial machinery. To be of solid service, our financial measure should operate as a check on expansions, as well as a break on contractions; and at the same time give the country an enlarged volume of currency when business requires it, and a diminished volume at other times, and incidentally to ward off any great revulsion in the price of Government bonds in a panic."

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY July 26, 1867. }

There is a continued active demand for all leading standard forge irons, and for such the market is firm with an advancing tendency. The sales during the week have been fair for season, and notwithstanding some of the mills have suspended operations, mill owners, generally, seem inclined to secure a supply now, being apprehensive that they might have to pay more in a month or two hence than at present; and, besides, it is anticipated that there will be a heavy fall business. There is also a good demand for leading brands of foundry irons, and stocks of this particular kind are very much reduced. Inferior grades of metal, both mill and foundry, continue dull and in good supply; while, on the other hand, desirable brands are in good demand, and sell readily at full prices. We quote the following sales:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 26, 1867. }

The general market continue very dull, and with a demand restricted almost wholly to supplying immediate wants, prices are weak, with a drooping tendency, and the volume of business, in the aggregate, is insignificant.

GRAIN—There is nothing doing in Wheat. Oats less active and a little weak but unchanged; we continue to quote at 85c, on track, and 87@88c, in store. Sale of 1 car prime White Corn, in elevator, at $1,01—small sales of prime Yellow in store, at $1,03@1,05. Rye may be quoted at $1,35@1,40. No movement in Barley.

FLOUR—The market continues dull and weak, though prices are nominally unchanged. We continue to quote at $11,50@12 for choice Spring, and $15@16 for fancy brands. Sales of new Ohio Winter Wheat Flour at $12. Rye Flour, $8.25.

PROVISIONS—The market for Bacon is less excited, though prices are unchanged; we continue to quote at 12¾@13¼c for Shoulders; 15@16c for Ribbed and Clear Sides, and 21½@22c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull and nominal 15c. Dried Beef, 24@25c, and Mess Pork, $25@25,50.

POTATOES—The market is a little weak, under prospective increased arrivals, and prices, although unchanged, will doubtless let down considerably within the next few days. Small sales of new at 4 25@4,50 per bbl.

GREEN APPLES—Continue scarce, and the arrivals are very light. Quotations may be fairly given at $6@7 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is dull and neglected but unchanged; small sales of prime fresh at 15@16c.

EGGS—The demand is only moderate, and prices are irregular, ranging from 22@24c—mostly at 22@23c.

CHEESE—Is in fair demand and steady but unchanged. We continue to quote at 13@15c, as to quality.

HAY—New Hay is coming in pretty freely, and is a little dull at $17@20 per ton.

SEEDS—Small sales of Flaxseed at $2,80—nothing doing in Clover or Timothy, excepting an occasional small retail sale.

OIL—Lard Oil is steady, with a fair jobbing demand, and we continue to quote at 85c for No. 2, and $1,05@1,06 for No 1.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 26, 1867. }

CRUDE—The market was very fidgety to-day. Early in the day there was nothing done scarcely, and but little disposition manifested to do anything. Some holders were anxious to realize, but refused to make any concessions in order to effect sales, while buyers appeared determined not to buy unless they could do so at a decline. The first sale effected was at 11c, to be delivered on first water; later in the day, there was another sale for the same delivery, at 10c, and then, right on the heels of this last named operation, there were two additional sales, for same delivery, at 10½c. At ten cents there was quite an active demand, but there was but one lot that could be got at that price, the one above mentioned, and the parties who were so fortunate as to get it could no doubt have realized a profit of half a cent per gallon within a very few minutes. So far as we could learn, there was but little cause for this "little panic," if it may be so termed, as the foreign and eastern markets have undergone no perceptible change since Thursday. The sales were:

1000 bbls,	first water	11c
3,000 "		p.t.
124 "	ten days, buyer's option	12c
4000 "	first water	10c
1000 "	last 4 months, seller	10½c
2000 "		10½c

REFINED—There was but little done in bonded oil to-day, and the market, in sympathy with crude, was a little panicky and unsettled, with a tendency to lower rates. There were but few sales effected, and but little offered, and our refiners, generally, are not free sellers at present prices, feeling pretty confident that as the season advances the market will become stronger, and prices improve. Sale of 500 bbls for July delivery in Philadelphia, at 32c, and later in the day, 500 for August, at 31c—these sales, compared with yesterday, show a decline of ½c for the former month, and 1@1½c on the latter.

—Since the above was put in type, we have the following sales reported: 1500 barrels, on spot, at 31½c, and 1000 do do at 32c.

Wool in Michigan.

DETROIT, July 25.—The market for this week opens very quiet and is unchanged in condition from that on Saturday last. Buyers here are firm in their views and will pay only 35@40c, the state of the eastern market still being unfavorable for operations. The large consignments now going forward appeared to have depressed those markets very materially, and holders find it difficult to realize except at rates that inflict heavy losses in many instances. At the new rates now prevailing dealers inform us that the amount taken this week has materially fallen away, and they report the market as more quiet at the prices offered.

The latest intelligence from interior markets not already given in our State news is as follows: Howell—The market is very dull with prices lower than last week. The whole amount purchased is 120,000 lbs at an average of 42½c. Jackson, 234—The market is quiet, and is considered as virtually closed for the present. Buyers offer lower rates but obtain very little. The receipts last week were about 50,000 lbs. Grand Rapids—About 400,000 lbs has been purchased up to the present time. The market this week opens more quiet. Albion—During the past week prices have declined about 5c and a large amount has been bought at 35c with the best only commanding 40c. Flint—About 200,000 lbs has been taken at from 35@43.—Tribune.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, July 26.—Flour unchanged; family, at $10,25@10,75. Wheat in fair demand, at $2@2,05 for No. 1 red, and $2.20@2.25 for white; 1,200 bu choice white Kentucky sold at the latter rate. Corn firm but quiet at 75c for No. 1 in bulk, and 85c in sacks. Old Oats are very scarce and sold at 90c; new are dull, at 70c. Rye sold at $1,37, but closed dull under the news from Chicago. Cotton dull and prices nominal, at 26c for middling. Whisky is unchanged and dull, at $2,30 in bond. Mess Pork sold at $23,75, but is generally held at $24. Bulk meats irregular; shoulders at 11½c and sides at 13½c, but the state of the market is such that it would be impossible to say whether much could have been sold or bought at these rates. RIVER NEWS.

An improvement in steam engines has recently been brought to light in Hamburg, Arkansas. The inventor claims that he can extend the crank to the verge of the wheel and shorten the stroke at the same time. For instance, that he can commence with a two feet stroke of piston and make a twenty feet stroke of crank on the band or water wheel, all in the same time, which has never been done before. That he has gained from one to two hundred per cent. over the old machinery, taking up much less room, and doing away with the horrible destruction of life and loss of boats and freight by the bursting of boilers. The invention, or improvement, is termed the "Excelsior Motor."

The Gen. J. G. Totten, Government wrecking boat, is shortly to blow up the wreck of the Black Hawk, in the bend above Cairo.

The F. W. Brooks, sold at St. Louis on Saturday by the Sheriff for a nominal sum, remains to be disposed of by the Marshal. The rapid decline of the river has left her hard aground. The powerful towboat Gartside couldn't move her.

The Phil Sheridan, says the St. Louis Republican, has gone on another raid, so saith Captain Hutchinson in a telegraphic dispatch to his agents in this city. We suppose from that that the Phil Sheridan has quit the Dubuque trade.

John E. Oxley & Co. have secured the contract for building the boilers for the new steamer now in course of construction for Mr. W. M. McPherson at the Carondelet Marine Railway.

On the levee yesterday, says Saturday's St. Paul Press, there was a more lively appearance than usual, though perhaps there was more business, the sudden and unusually rapid rise of the river attracting many to the spot, while all were interested in watching its encroachment upon terra firma. The Itasca arrived from Dunleith with a good load of passengers and freight. Her officers report everything along the river in a most lethargic state, with nothing worthy of note. Way travel and freights are fair, in fact good for the season, but everything is devoid of incident, matters jogging along in a most matter of fact way.

Mobile advices of the 18th report business very dull, with but few arrivals and departures. The steamer Flirt was burned there the night before the above date, while lying at the wharf. Loss, $8000, and no insurance.

The New Orleans and Cincinnati Pilots' Association held a meeting yesterday, and resolved that on after August 1st their price for a New Orleans trip would be $250 each; to Memphis, $125.

Portland Bar is down in the mouth. The New Albany Ledger says that the ferry boats have been compelled to run the lower channel in order to cross the bar. The sand washed from the island has filled up the upper crossing with an unbroken reef extending from the middle bar to the Indiana shore, and makes that channel at present a dangerous passage. We may expect to see the sternwheelers waltzing over in a few days.

"Messrs. Martin, Walt & Co., and Frank Hicks, of Memphis, have purchased the steamer Mollie Able for the Memphis and New Orleans trade. The trade has been closed, they paying $35,000 to the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship line for the boat. Her owners will put $15,000 worth of repairs on her, and convert her into regular cotton boat."

The Cincinnati Gazette says: Mr. P. Nimon, jr., of Pittsburgh, a gentleman identified with steamboat interests, arrived in the city yesterday, and will sojourn here for several days.

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—The decline continues here, and is quite rapid, not more so, though, than is that of the Missouri and Illinois. Low water is touched already in the latter. The heats of summer have their usual effect. The last boat down the Illinois found only thirty-two inches at Tree Top. The Nellie Rogers enters the Naples trade, making two boats in it. The Peoria City is chartered, and will make two trips per week to Jefferson City, Missouri river. The Marble City has laid up for repairs. The W. J. Lewis brought the heaviest cargo ever received from the Missouri river. It included 332 hogsheads tobacco and 349 bales hemp and cotton, she refusing 4,000 sacks.

Capt. Dan. McLean, for many years connected with the steamers of the Lake Superior line, and lately in command of the steamer Dubuque, took leave of the Dubuque some two weeks since, owing to ill health, and died on board the Wave on Lake Huron. He has relatives residing at Kincardine, Ontario, to which point his body was taken for interment.

The Evansville Journal says: Capt. Josh. V. Throop is quite unwell, but is slowly improving. W. W. Crawford and J. McFaddin, the corn kings are in the city. It is not true that McFaddin was killed in a duel with Capt. Hugh Campbell. He is still alive, and can laugh just as usual.
